HOW TO REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as YES, verify your current SMALL ENTITY status:

A. If the status is the same, pay the TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above.

B. If the status above is to be removed, check box 5b on Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal and pay the PUBLICATION FEE (if required) and twice the amount of the ISSUE FEE shown above, or

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as NO:

A. Pay TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above, or

B. If applicant claimed SMALL ENTITY status before, or is now claiming SMALL ENTITY status, check box 5a on Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal and pay the PUBLICATION FEE (if required) and 1/2 the ISSUE FEE shown above.

II. PART B - FEE(S) TRANSMITTAL, or its equivalent, must be completed and returned to the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) with your ISSUE FEE and PUBLICATION FEE (if required). If you are charging the fee(s) to your deposit account, section "4b" of Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal should be completed and an extra copy of the form should be submitted. If an equivalent of Part B is filed, a request to reapply a previously paid issue fee must be clearly made, and delays in processing may occur due to the difficulty in recognizing the paper as an equivalent of Part B.

5. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

- . Claim 5 amended as the following:

5. (Currently Amended) A method of talk request processing in a do-not-disturb (DnD) capable communication system, the method comprising: receiving a talk request for a requested walkie-talkie-like communications session involving a user device capable of walkie-talkie-like functionality; and selectively overriding DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session based on an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device applied to a criterion or condition of the talk request other than a user device identifier; wherein the user device is a wireless device; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises an ignoreDnD flag, and wherein selectively overriding said DnD functionality is a function of the ignoreDnD flag; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises at least one predetermined ignore reason value, and wherein selectively overriding said DnD functionality is a function of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value; and wherein the talk request has a current state associated therewith, the current state being one of a number of possible current states for the talk request, wherein each predetermined ignore reason value represents a corresponding possible current state for the talk request, the method further comprising: evaluating the ignoreDnD flag to determine whether further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed, and if evaluating the ignoreDnD flag determines that further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed: a) determining the current state of the talk request; and b) for each of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value:

⇒ comparing the corresponding possible current state with the current state of the talk request; wherein said DnD functionality is overridden if any corresponding possible current state matches the current state of the talk request.

. Claim 14 amended as the following:

14. (Currently Amended) A talk request processing system in a do-not-disturb (DnD) capable communication system, the talk request processing system comprising: a receiver adapted to receive a talk request for a requested walkie-talkie-like communications session involving a user device capable of walkie-talkie-like functionality; and a network call processing function adapted to selectively override DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session based on an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device applied to a criterion or condition of the talk request other than a user device identifier; wherein the user device is a wireless device; wherein the network call function comprises: a data store adapted to store the ignoreDnD attribute for the user device; a DnD processing function adapted to provide DnD functionality; and an ignoreDnD processing function adapted to override DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session as a function of the ignoreDnD attribute stored in the data store for the user device; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises an ignoreDnD flag and at least one predetermined ignore reason value, and wherein the ignoreDnD processing function selectively overrides said DnD functionality as a function of the ignoreDnD flag and the at least one predetermined ignore reason value; and wherein the talk request has a current state associated therewith, the current state being one of a number of possible current states for the talk request, wherein each predetermined ignore reason value represents a corresponding possible current state for the talk request, wherein the ignoreDnD processing function: retrieves the ignoreDnD attribute from the data store; and evaluates the ignoreDnD flag to determine whether further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed, and if evaluating the ignoreDnD flag determines that further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed: a) determines the current state of the talk request; and b) for each of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value:

i) compares the corresponding possible current state with the current state of the talk request; wherein said DnD functionality is overridden if any corresponding possible current state matches the current state of the talk request.

(End of Amendment)

Reasons for Allowance

6. Claims 5-8, 14-17, 23 and 25 allowed over the prior art record.
7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The applicant's remarks, filed on 06/30/2010, have been carefully reviewed with updated search. Consequently, reasons for allowance of claims 5-8, 14-17, 23 and 25 are set forth in according with the following:

Ericsson, Motorola, Siemens, Nokia Technical Specification (Push to Talk over Cellular (PoC); User Requirements; PoC Release 1.0; User Requirements V 1.1.1 (2003-10)) teaches in ad-hoc instant group talk, a user invites selected users to establish an ad-hoc instant group talk session. An inviting user selects invited users from a contact list or by typing the addresses of the invited users and initiates an ad-hoc instant group talk. Only transient ad-hoc group identity is created in the network for this feature. Each invited user can either accept or reject the invitation, depending on the user's preference. During an ongoing ad-hoc talk session a participant can also invite other users to the group session. An ad-hoc instant group talk can be used when a group discussion is needed without planning it in advance.

Schessel (U.S. PAT. 6,418,215) teaches a method of introducing a feature during a communication between subscribers of a telecommunications network. The first step of the method is executing, at each predefined trigger point during the communication, an operation to activate a particular requested feature. The method then requires accessing data stored in a network memory for use in the activation operation. The data is arranged in the memory in table and bit map format so as to enable the features to be customized. The method then requires executing the particular requested feature upon activation. The method may also include repeating the method steps for each feature available to be activated at a respective trigger point in an order determined by the stored data. The method is independent of the type of requested feature.

Consider claims 5-8 and 25, the prior arts made of record, alone or in combination, fails to clearly teach or fairly suggest a method of talk request processing in a do-not-disturb (DnD) capable communication system, the method comprising: receiving a talk request for a requested walkie-talkie-like communications session involving a user device capable of walkie-talkie-like functionality; and selectively overriding DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session based on an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device applied to a criterion or condition of the talk request other than a user device identifier; wherein the user device is a wireless device; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises an ignoreDnD flag, and wherein selectively overriding said DnD functionality is a function of the ignoreDnD flag; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises at least one predetermined ignore reason value, and wherein selectively overriding said DnD functionality is a function of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value; and wherein the talk request has a current state associated therewith, the current state being one of a number of possible current states for the talk request, wherein each predetermined ignore reason value represents a corresponding possible current state for the talk request, the method further comprising: evaluating the ignoreDnD flag to determine whether further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed, and if evaluating the ignoreDnD flag determines that further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed: a) determining the current state of the talk request; and b) for each of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value: comparing the corresponding possible current state with the current state of the talk request; wherein said DnD functionality is overridden if any corresponding possible current state matches the current state of the talk request, as specified in the independent claim 5, and further limitations of their respective dependent claims 6-8 and 25.

Consider claims 14-17, the prior arts made of record, alone or in combination, fails to clearly teach or fairly suggest a talk request processing system in a do-not-disturb (DnD) capable communication system, the talk request processing system comprising: a receiver adapted to receive a talk request for a requested walkie-talkie-like communications session involving a user device capable of walkie-talkie-like functionality; and a network call processing function adapted to selectively override DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session based on an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device applied to a criterion or condition of the talk request other than a user device identifier; wherein the user device is a wireless device; wherein the network call function comprises: a data store adapted to store the ignoreDnD attribute for the user device; a DnD processing function adapted to provide DnD functionality; and an ignoreDnD processing function adapted to override DnD functionality for the requested walkie-talkie-like communications session as a function of the ignoreDnD attribute stored in the data store for the user device; wherein the ignoreDnD attribute comprises an ignoreDnD flag and at least one predetermined ignore reason value, and wherein the ignoreDnD processing function selectively overrides said DnD functionality as a function of the ignoreDnD flag and the at least one predetermined ignore reason value; and wherein the talk request has a current state associated therewith, the current state being one of a number of possible current states for the talk request, wherein each predetermined ignore reason value represents a corresponding possible current state for the talk request, wherein the ignoreDnD processing function: retrieves the ignoreDnD attribute from the data store; and evaluates the ignoreDnD flag to determine whether further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed, and if evaluating the ignoreDnD flag determines that further ignoreDnD processing is to be performed: a) determines the current state of the talk request; and b) for each of the at least one predetermined ignore reason value: compares the corresponding possible current state with the current state of the talk request; wherein said DnD functionality is overridden if any corresponding possible current state matches the current state of the talk request, as specified in the independent claim 14, and further limitations of their respective dependent claims 15-17.

Consider claim 23, the prior arts made of record, alone or in combination, fails to clearly teach or fairly suggest a user device capable of walkie-talkie-like functionality for a do-not-disturb (DnD) capable communication system, the user device comprising: a user interface adapted to accept an external input to modify an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device the ignoreDnD attribute concerning a criterion or condition of a talk request other than a user device identifier; an ignoreDnD attribute request generator responsive to said external input adapted to send a network call processing server a request to update the ignoreDnD attribute of the user device; and a user interface display for displaying modifications for the ignoreDnD attribute indicated by the external input; wherein the user device is a wireless device; and wherein the user interface is further adapted to accept an external query input to retrieve an ignoreDnD attribute for the user device, the ignore DnD attribute request generator is further adapted to: (a) send a network call processing server a query to retrieve the ignoreDnD attribute of the user device; and b) receive a response to said query from the network; wherein the user interface display is adapted to, in response to the ignoreDnD attribute request generator receiving the response to said query, display the ignoreDnD attribute for the user device, as specified in the independent claim 23.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
